

Welcome to All Saints

16 June 2019

Fathers' Day

9:15 Parade service with Eucharist

Feel free to ask the Priest before the service if you have any special intentions to be included in today's Intercessions.

We do not practise Intinction (dipping the consecrated bread, or host, into the consecrated wine before consumption by the communicant) in this church. If you are unable to partake of the Common Cup, then it is legitimate to receive the host alone, since the body and blood are present in both species.*

In case of an accident during the service if there is a trained medic in church they should take control and others should remain in their seats. A churchwarden should call for an ambulance if needed and the accident book should be filled in. The service will continue as normal if at all possible.*

HYMN

- 1 God the Father of Creation,
source of life and energy,
your creative love so shapes us that we share your liberty.
Teach us how to use this freedom loving children all to be.
- 2 Jesus Christ our Lord and brother,
in your cross we see the way to be servants for each other,
caring, suffering every day.
Teach us patience and obedience never from your path to stray.
- 3 Holy Spirit, love that binds us to the Father and the Son, giver of the joy that fills us,
yours the peace that makes us one,

teach our hearts to be more open
so to pray, 'God's will be done'.

- 4 Members of our Saviour's body,
here on earth his life to be,
though we stand as different people,
may we share the unity
of the Father, Son and Spirit, perfect love in Trinity.

GREETING

The President says

In the name of the Father,
and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

The Lord be with you,

All and also with you.

Words of welcome may be said.

CONFESSION

Minister In all our services we take time to think about things that have gone wrong, even on a happy day like this.
Fathers get it wrong, children get it wrong, everyone gets it wrong.
Sometimes it's our own fault, sometimes it just that there are bad and sad things in the world.

Sin is an old word meaning to "miss the mark".
So this morning we are going to remember all those times we have "missed the mark".

We are sad because we have hurt other people.

*Kyrie eleison, Kyrie eleison.

*Christe eleison, Christe eleison.

*Kyrie eleison, Kyrie eleison.

Minister We are sad because we have been hurt by others.

Lord have mercy, Lord have mercy.
Christ have mercy, Christ have mercy.
Lord have mercy, Lord have mercy.

Minister We are sad for all the hurts in God's world.

Kyrie eleison, Kyrie eleison.
Christe eleison, Christe eleison.
Kyrie eleison, Kyrie eleison.

Silence may be kept.

ABSOLUTION

The President says

May the God of love and power forgive us and free us from our sins,
heal and strengthen us by his Spirit,
and raise us to new life in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

All Amen.

COLLECT

The President introduces a period of silent prayer with the words 'Let us pray' or a more specific bidding.

The Collect is said.

Loving God,
you sent Jesus your Son
to show us your love and lead us to freedom.
Strengthen us as we share that love
together with our families and our friends, and learn from you how to bring new life to the world.

All Amen.

READING Buy Wisdom, Understanding, Insight (Proverbs 16:22-25)

Listen with respect to the father who gave you life, and when your mother grows old, don't neglect her. Buy the truth and don't sell it for love nor money; buy wisdom, buy understanding, buy insight. Parents rejoice when their children turn out well and wise children become proud parents. So make your father happy! Make your mother proud!

At the end the reader may say

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Silence may be kept.

HYMN

*Refrain All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small,
all things wise and wonderful
the Lord God made them all.*

1 Each little flower that opens,
each little bird that sings,
he made their glowing colours,
he made their tiny wings.

2 The purple headed mountain,
the river running by,
the sunset and the morning
that brightens up the sky:

3 The cold wind in the winter,
the pleasant summer sun,
the ripe fruits in the garden,
he made them every one.

4 He gave us eyes to see them, and lips that we might tell how great is God almighty, who has made all things well.

Cecil Frances Alexander (née Humphreys) (1818-1895)

GOSPEL READING Luke 15.11 ff (paraphrase)

All Alleluia! [x4]

Minister Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, one God, who was, and who is, and who is to come, the Almighty.

All Alleluia! [x4]

Minister Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus told this story:

A certain man had two sons. One day the younger one came and asked his father for all the money that was to come to him later on. The father gave the younger son the money. A few days later, this son went to a far away country. There he spent his money doing very bad things. He had lots of new friends while he had money; but when his money was gone, all his new friends were gone too. There was a famine in the land. Everyone began to be hungry, including the son. He looked for work, but couldn't find any. And so finally he got a job working for a man who owned pigs. He had to feed the pigs their food (it smelled really bad). The young man was very hungry. Every day when he fed the pigs, even the food the pigs were eating looked good to him.

Finally the son remembered something. He remembered that in his father's house even the people who worked for his father had plenty to eat. He decided that he would go home and tell his father that he was really sorry. He thought that he had done so many bad things that he didn't even deserve to be called his son anymore. The son hoped his dad would just take him in as a servant, so he wouldn't be hungry anymore. So, the son said 'Good-bye' to the pigs and went home. All the way home he practised what he would say: 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' What would his father say? The son worried all the way home.

While the son was still a long way off, his father saw him coming and ran out to meet him. He was so happy to see his son that he ran up to him, threw his arms around him, and kissed him. Then, while the boy was trying to say all the things he'd been planning to say, the father sent his servants to go get the best robe, and the best ring, and new clothes for his son. Then the father said they should have a big party to celebrate. The father was so full of happiness because the son he had thought he had lost had come home.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

PRESENTATION

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Today we think especially about being part of a family, and particularly of how God is both Father and Mother to us.

Let us share together in these words:

All We believe in God the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named.
We believe in God the Son, who lives in our hearts through faith, and fills us with his love.
We believe in God the Holy Spirit, who strengthens us with power from on high.
We believe in one God; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

cf Ephesians 3

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

In the power of the Spirit
and in union with Christ,
let us pray to the Father.

This response may be included:

God of love,
All hear our prayer.

And at the end

Merciful Father,
All accept these prayers for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Silence is kept.

PEACE

The President says

As parents feel for their children,
so God feels for all those he has created.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
All And also with you.

Minister Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

All may exchange a sign of peace.

PREPARATION OF THE TABLE

During the hymn the gifts of the people may be gathered and presented.

HYMN

- 1 Father, Lord of earth and heaven,
King to whom all gifts belong,
Give your greatest Gift, your Spirit,
God the holy, God the strong.
- 2 Son of God, enthroned in glory,
Send your promised gift of grace,
Make your Church your Holy Temple,
God the Spirit's dwelling place.
- 3 Spirit, come in peace descending
As at Jordan, heav'nly Dove,
Seal your Church as God's anointed,
Set our hearts on fire with love.
- 4 Stay among us God the Father,
Stay among us God the Son,
Stay among us Holy Spirit:
Dwell within us, make us one.

James Quinn (1919-2010) © OCP Publications

TABLE PRAYER

Look upon us in mercy not in judgement;
draw us from hatred to love;
make the frailty of our praise
a dwelling place for your glory.

All Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Lord be with you,
All and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
All We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All It is right to give thanks and praise.

Voice Why is it right to give thanks and praise?
Voice Listen, and we will hear.

Lord of all life, you created the universe,
where all living things reflect your glory.

You give us this great and beautiful earth,
to discover and to cherish.

You made us all, each wonderfully different,
to join with the angels and sing your praise:

All Holy, holy, holy is the Lord,
holy is the Lord God Almighty.
Holy, holy, holy is the Lord,
holy is the Lord God Almighty,
who was and is and is to come.
Holy, holy, holy is the Lord.

We thank you, loving Father,
because, when we turned away,
you sent Jesus, your Son.
He gave his life for us on the cross and shows us the way to live.

Send your Holy Spirit
that these gifts of bread and wine
may be for us Christ's body and his blood.

Voice Why do we share this bread and wine?

Voice Listen, and we will hear.

On the night before he died,
when darkness had fallen,
Jesus took bread.

He gave thanks, broke it,
and shared it with his disciples, saying:
'This is my body, given for you.
Do this to remember me.'

After they had eaten,
he took the cup of wine,
gave thanks,
and shared it with his disciples, saying:
'This is my blood,
poured out for you and for many,
for the forgiveness of sins.'

Minister Great is the mystery of faith.

All Jesus, Jesus, Jesus is the Lord,
Jesus is the Lord God Almighty.
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus is the Lord,
Jesus is the Lord God Almighty,
who was and is and is to come.
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus is the Lord.

So Father,
with this bread and this cup
we celebrate his love, his death, his risen life.

As you feed us with these gifts,
send your Holy Spirit,
and change us more and more to be like Jesus our Saviour.

Voice How do we follow Jesus Christ?
Voice Listen, and we will hear.

Help us, Father, to love one another,
as we look forward to that day
when suffering is ended
and all creation is gathered in your loving arms.

And now with [N and] all your saints
we give you glory,
through Jesus Christ,
in the strength of the Spirit,
today and for ever.

All Amen.

All Glory, glory, glory to the Lord,
glory to the Lord God Almighty.
Glory, glory, glory to the Lord,
glory to the Lord God Almighty,
who was and is and is to come.
Glory, glory, glory to the Lord.

Silence may be kept.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

As our Saviour taught us, so we pray.

All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

(Or)

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The President breaks the consecrated bread.

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All Though we are many, we are one body,
because we all share in one bread.

AGNUS DEI

O Lamb of God, come cleanse our hearts and take our sin away.

O Lamb of God, your grace impart,
and let our guilty fear depart,
have mercy, Lord, we pray,
have mercy, Lord, we pray.

[Repeat once from beginning.]

- 1 When we walk with the Lord
in the light of His word,
what a glory He sheds on our way!
While we do His good will,
He abides with us still,
and with all who will trust and obey.

Refrain *Trust and obey,
for there's no other way
to be happy in Jesus,
but to trust and obey.*

- 2 Not a shadow can rise,
not a cloud in the skies,
but His smile quickly drives it away;
not a doubt nor a fear,
not a sigh nor a tear,
can abide while we trust and obey.

- 3 Not a burden we bear,
not a sorrow we share,
but our toil He doth richly repay;
not a grief nor a loss,
not a frown nor a cross,
but is blessed if we trust and obey.
- 4 But we never can prove the delights of His love
until all on the altar we lay;
for the favour He shows,
for the joy He bestows,
are for them who will trust and obey.
- 5 Then in fellowship sweet,
we will sit at His feet,
or we'll walk by His side in the way.
What He says we will do,
where He sends we will go;
never fear, only trust and obey.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Minister Lord our God,
thank you for the gift of fathers,
for all they show us of your love,
for all the joys they bring us,
for all the laughter we share.
Be with them in times of play and times of rest,
in times of delight and times of despair,
in the beauty and in the sadness,
in their work and in their homes
on this day and everyday.

All Amen.
