PALM SUNDAY
2021

Jesus is coming

shout hosanna

He's riding a donkey

shout hosanna

open the gates

shout hosanna

Open the ancient doors

shout hosanna

Don't be afraid

shout hosanna

Wave the branches

shout hosanna

spread out your coats

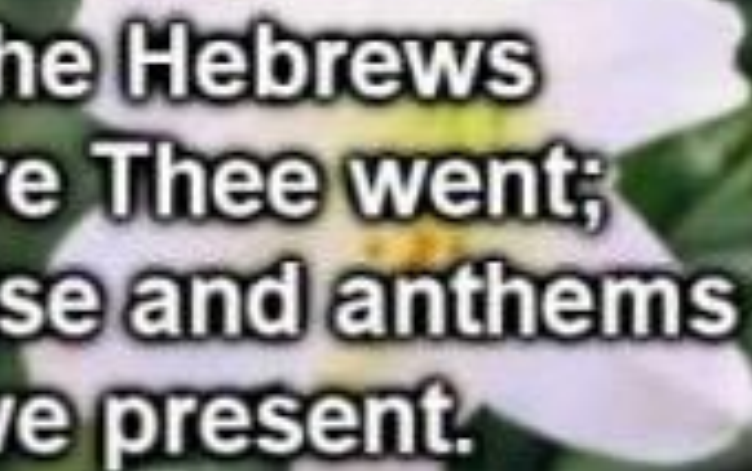

shout hosanna

glory in the highest
heavens

shout hosanna

The people of the Hebrews
With palms before Thee went;
Our prayer and praise and anthems
Before Thee we present.

A READING from Psalm 118

Thank God because he's good,
because his love never quits.

Tell the world, people of God

“His love never quits.”

A READING from John 12

The next day the huge crowd that had arrived for the Feast heard that Jesus was entering Jerusalem. They broke off palm branches and went out to meet him. And they cheered:

‘Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in God’s name! Yes! The King of Israel!’

Jesus got a young donkey and rode it, just as the Scripture has it:

*No fear, Daughter Zion:
See how your king comes,
riding a donkey's colt.*

The disciples didn't notice the fulfillment of many Scriptures at the time, but after Jesus was glorified, they remembered that what was written about him matched what was done to him.

There were some Greeks in town who had come up to worship at the Feast.

They approached Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee: ‘Sir, we want to see Jesus. Can you help us?’

Philip went and told Andrew. Andrew and Philip together told Jesus. Jesus answered, ‘Time’s up. The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.’

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

PRAYERS

Lord, meet us in the silence,

give us strength and hear our prayer.

SILENCE (count to 10 in your head)

Sharing the faith of the followers of Jesus
on the first Palm Sunday
we pray for all who are ill, frightened or alone.
Lord, meet us in the silence,
give us strength and hear our prayer.
SILENCE (count to 10 in your head)

Sharing the vision of the followers of Jesus
on the first Palm Sunday
we pray for peace and justice for our world.
Lord, meet us in the silence,
give us strength and hear our prayer.
SILENCE (count to 10 in your head)

Joining with Anglicans around the world
we listen to a prayer for Palm Sunday.

True and humble king
Hailed by the crowd as Messiah:
Grant us the faith to know you and to love you,
That we may be found beside you
On the way to the cross,
Which is the path of glory. Amen.

Lord, meet us in the silence,
give us strength and hear our prayer.

SILENCE (count to 10 in your head)

And finally, joining with all the followers of Jesus,
on the first Palm Sunday, and ever since,
we pray together:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin

against us.

Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours

now and for ever.

Amen.

Save us, Lord,
from trammelled thinking
that fails to see your presence
and activity
when it challenges our prejudices
and our ego.

Give us instead the vision
of your kingdom,
that we may be enabled
to discern your working
even when it threatens our preconceptions.

May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ
and the love of God
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit
be with us all ever more. Amen.
