All Saints' Sunday
30 October 2022

A warm welcome to our worship this morning. Whether a regular or a visitor, it is good to have you here.

We encourage you to use the hand sanitiser stations when you arrive, before and after communion, and when you leave.

Personal photographs you take in our church, with children other than your own in them, are not to be published on social media sites (Instagram, Facebook etc.)*

We stand as the bell sounds to mark the beginning of our worship. As we sing our first hymn the altar party and choir process into church.*

HYMN

- 1 Tell all the world of Jesus,
our Saviour, Lord and King;
and let the whole creation
of his salvation sing:
proclaim his glorious greatness
in nature and in grace;
Creator and Redeemer,
the Lord of time and space.
- 2 Tell all the world of Jesus,
that everyone may find the joy of his forgiveness –
true peace of heart and mind:
proclaim his perfect goodness,
his deep, unfailing care;
his love so rich in mercy,
a love beyond compare.
- 3 Tell all the world of Jesus,
that everyone may know
of his almighty triumph
defeating every foe:
proclaim his coming glory,

when sin is overthrown
and he shall reign in splendour –
the King upon his throne.

James Seddon (1915–1983)

GREETING

Bishop Blessed be God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
All Blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Bishop There is one body and one spirit.
All There is one hope to which we were called;
Bishop one Lord, one faith, one baptism,
All one God and Father of all.

Bishop Peace be with you,
All and also with you.

Words of welcome may be said.

COLLECT

The bishop introduces the service followed by a period of silent prayer with the words 'Let us pray'.

The Collect is said by a member of the congregation.

Heavenly Father,
by the power of your Holy Spirit
you give to your faithful people new life in the water of baptism.
Guide and strengthen us by the same Spirit, that we who are born again may serve you in faith and love,
and grow into the full stature of your Son, Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit
now and for ever.

All Amen.

READING 2 Thessalonians 1

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing. Therefore we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith during all your persecutions and the afflictions that you are enduring.

This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God and is intended to make you worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering. For it is indeed just of God to repay with affliction those who afflict you and to give relief to the afflicted as well as to us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in a fiery flame, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. These will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction, separated from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might, when he comes to be glorified by his saints and to be marveled at on that day among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed. To this end we always pray for you, asking that our God will make you worthy of his call and will fulfill by his power every good resolve and work of faith, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

At the end the reader may say

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Silence may be kept.

HYMN

- 1 Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee;
take my moments and my days,
let them flow in ceaseless praise.
- 2 Take my hands, and let them move
at the impulse of thy love;
take my feet, and let them be swift and beautiful for thee.
- 3 Take my voice, and let me sing
always, only, for my King;
take my lips, and let them be filled with messages from thee.
- 4 Take my silver and my gold;
not a mite would I withhold;
take my intellect, and use every power as thou shalt choose.

- 5 Take my will, and make it thine:
 it shall be no longer mine;
 take my heart: it is thine own;
 it shall be thy royal throne.
- 6 Take my love; my Lord, I pour
 at thy feet its treasure-store;
 take myself, and I will be ever, only, all for thee.

Frances Ridley Havergal (1836-1879)

GOSPEL READING Luke 19.1-10

Choir/All Alleluia!

Cantor You are a chosen race,
 a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people,
 called out of darkness into his marvellous light.

Choir/All Alleluia!

Deacon Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through it. A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today." So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. All who saw it began to grumble and said, "He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner." Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much." Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he, too, is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost."

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON

After the Sermon silence may be kept.

A large candle is lit. The bishop addresses all the candidates:

PROFESSION OF FAITH

The ministers and candidates for confirmation gather at the baptismal font. The bishop blesses the water.

The bishop addresses the congregation:

Bishop Brothers and sisters,
I ask you to profess
together with these candidates
the faith of the Church.
Do you believe and trust in God the Father?

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Bishop Do you believe and trust in his Son Jesus Christ?

All I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

Bishop Do you believe and trust in the Holy Spirit?

All I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The bishop sprinkles the candidates with water and then says:

Bishop Almighty God,
we thank you for our fellowship in the household of faith
with all who have been baptised into your name.

Keep us faithful to our baptism,
and so make us ready for that day
when the whole creation shall be made perfect in your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

The bishop and the candidates gather at the place of confirmation.

CONFIRMATION

The bishop stands before those who are to be confirmed, and says:

Bishop Our help is in the name of the Lord
All who has made heaven and earth.

Bishop Blessed be the name of the Lord
All now and for ever. Amen.

The bishop extends his hands towards those to be confirmed and says

Bishop Almighty and ever-living God,
you have given these your servants new birth
in baptism by water and the Spirit,
and have forgiven them all their sins.
Let your Holy Spirit rest upon them:
the Spirit of wisdom and understanding;
the Spirit of counsel and inward strength;
the Spirit of knowledge and true godliness;
and let their delight be in the fear of the Lord.

All Amen.

The bishop addresses each candidate by name:

Bishop N, God has called you by name and made you his own.

The bishop anoints each candidate with the Oil of Chrism as a sign of God's anointing Spirit. He then lays his hand on the head of each, saying:

Bishop Confirm, O Lord, your servant with your Holy Spirit.
All Amen.

The bishop invites the congregation to pray for all those on whom hands have been laid.

All Defend, O Lord, these your servants with your heavenly grace, that they may continue yours for ever,
and daily increase in your Holy Spirit more and more until they come to your everlasting kingdom. Amen.

LICENSING OF AN ASSISTANT PRIEST

PRESENTATION OF THE PRIEST

The incumbent stands before the bishop with the priest.

Incumbent Bishop Donald, I present to you Revd Canon John Westwood to be licensed as Assistant Priest in this benefice.

Bishop I thank you for your presentation and pray that God's blessing may rest on the decisions made in his Name.

The bishop addresses the priest:

Bishop John, do you believe, so far as you know your own heart, that God has called you to this ministry?

Priest I believe that God has called me.

The incumbent returns to her seat.

DECLARATION AND THE OATHS OF ALLEGIANCE AND CANONICAL OBEDIENCE

Bishop The care of a Parish and its people is a sacred trust.

John, do you, in the presence of this congregation, commit yourself to share in this trust and responsibility?

Priest I do.

Bishop Will you who witness this new beginning support and uphold your assistant priest and will you commit yourselves to work with him in his ministry?

All We will.

Bishop Will you now make the Declaration and take the Oaths which are required by law?

Priest I will.

Archdeacon The Church of England is part of the One, Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, worshipping the one true God, Father Son and Holy Spirit. It professes the faith uniquely revealed in the Holy Scripture and set forth in the catholic creeds, which faith the Church is called upon to proclaim afresh in each generation.

Led by the Holy Spirit, it has borne witness to Christian truth in its historic formularies, the Thirty-nine Articles of Religion, the Book of Common Prayer, and the Ordering of Bishops, Priest and Deacons.

In the declaration you are about to make will you affirm your loyalty to this inheritance of faith as your inspiration and guidance under God in bringing the grace and truth of Christ to this generation and in making him known to those in your care?

Priest I, John Richard Westwood, do so affirm, and accordingly declare my belief in the faith which is revealed in the Holy Scriptures and set forth in the catholic creeds, and to which the historic formularies of the Church of England bear witness; and in public prayer and administration of the sacraments I will use only the forms of service which are authorised or allowed by Canon.

The priest takes the Bible in his right hand.

Priest I, John Richard Westwood, do swear by Almighty God that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King Charles the Third, his heirs and successors, according to law. So help me God.

I, John Richard Westwood, do swear by Almighty God that I will pay true and canonical obedience to the Lord Bishop of Peterborough and his successors, in all things lawful and honest. So help me God.

The priest subscribes the Declaration and the Oaths and then kneels before the bishop.

Bishop I ask you now to join me in prayer for Revd Canon John that God may bless him in his work, so that God's presence may be shown forth in your witness together in this place.

All kneel and pray. The bishop concludes the time of prayer with these words:

Bishop Almighty God, who on the Day of Pentecost sent your Holy Spirit to the disciples with the wind from heaven and in tongues of flame, filling them with joy and boldness to proclaim your Gospel, hear our prayer for Revd Canon John Westwood and for all your faithful people, that in the power of the same Spirit, we may witness to your truth, and draw all to the fire of your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

All sit.

LICENSING

The churchwardens stand beside the priest, who remains kneeling.

A churchwarden says:

Warden Bishop Donald, on behalf of the parishioners of this benefice we ask you to license Revd Canon John Westwood as our Assistant Priest.

We believe that he is well qualified and that he has been prayerfully and lawfully selected.

Bishop Brothers and sisters in Christ, is it your will that John should be licensed as Assistant Priest in this benefice?

All It is.

The churchwardens return to their places.

The bishop is seated and the priest kneels before him. The bishop reads the Licence, and delivers it to the new assistant priest.

Bishop John, receive the Cure of Souls which is both yours and mine; in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

The bishop blesses the priest:

Bishop God give you grace to fulfil your ministry, reverence in celebrating the sacraments, faithfulness in proclaiming the word, zeal in mission, diligence in pastoral care, tenderness in comforting, power in healing the wounds of his people, and humility, self-sacrifice and courage in all things. May you follow the steps of our Lord and lead others in the way of eternal joy.

All Amen.

WELCOME

Bishop Having duly and legally licensed Revd Canon John Westwood as Assistant Priest in this Benefice, I now present him to you.

The new assistant priest is welcomed by the congregation.

PEACE

Bishop We are fellow citizens with the saints,
and of the household of God,
through Jesus Christ our Lord
who came and preached peace to those who were far off
and to those who were near.

The peace of the Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Minister Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

All may exchange a sign of peace.

PREPARATION OF THE TABLE

ANTHEM

O thou the central orb of righteous love,
Pure beam of the most High, eternal light
of this out wintry world,
thy radiance bright awakes new joy in faith,
hope soars above.
Come, quickly come, and let thy glory shine,
gilding our darksome heaven with rays divine.
Thy saints with holy lustre round thee move,
as stars about thy throne, set in the height
of God's ordaining counsel,
as thy sight gives measured grace to each thy power to prove.

Let thy bright beams disperse the gloom of sin,
Our nature all shall feel eternal day in fellowship with thee.
Transforming day to souls ere-while unclean,
now pure within. Amen.

Charles Wood (1866-1926)

TABLE PRAYER

Minister Yours, Lord, is the greatness, the power,
the glory, the splendour, and the majesty;
for everything in heaven and on earth is yours

All All things come from you,
and of your own do we give you.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

Minister The Lord is here.

All His Spirit is with us.

Minister Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Minister Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give thanks and praise.

Minister Blessed are you, Lord God, our light and our salvation;
to you be glory and praise for ever.

From the beginning you have created all things and all your works echo the silent music of your praise.
In the fullness of time you made us in your image,
the crown of all creation.

You give us breath and speech,
that with angels and archangels
and all the powers of heaven
we may find a voice to sing your praise:

Choir/All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.

Minister How wonderful the work of your hands, O Lord.
As a mother tenderly gathers her children,
you embraced a people as your own.
When they turned away and rebelled
your love remained steadfast.

From them you raised up Jesus our Saviour, born of Mary,
to be the living bread, in whom all our hungers are satisfied.

He offered his life for sinners,
and with a love stronger than death
he opened wide his arms on the cross.

On the night before he died,
he came to supper with his friends
and, taking bread, he gave you thanks.
He broke it and gave it to them, saying:

Take, eat;
this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

At the end of supper, taking the cup of wine,
he gave you thanks, and said:

Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you and for many
for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it,
in remembrance of me

Deacon Jesus Christ is Lord.

Choir/All Lord, by your cross and resurrection
you have set us free.
You are the Saviour of the world.

Minister Father, we plead with confidence
his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross;
we remember his dying and rising in glory,
and we rejoice that he intercedes for us at your right hand.

Pour out your Holy Spirit
as we bring before you these gifts of your creation;
may they be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

As we eat and drink these holy things in your presence,
form us in the likeness of Christ,
and build us into a living temple to your glory.

Bring us at the last all the saints
to the vision of that eternal splendour
for which you have created us;
through Jesus Christ, our Lord,
by whom, with whom, and in whom,
with all who stand before you in earth and heaven,
we worship you, Father almighty,
in songs of everlasting praise:

All Blessing and honour and glory and power
be yours for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Minister As our Saviour taught us, so we pray:

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The president breaks the consecrated bread.

Minister We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All Though we are many, we are one body,
because we all share in one bread.

Choir/All Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
grant us peace.

GIVING OF COMMUNION

Minister Draw near with faith.
Receive the body of our Lord Jesus Christ
which he gave for you,
and his blood which he shed for you.
Eat and drink in remembrance
that he died for you,
and feed on him in your hearts
by faith with thanksgiving.

All We do not presume
 to come to this your table, merciful Lord,
 trusting in our own righteousness,
 but in your manifold and great mercies.
 We are not worthy
 so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table.
 But you are the same Lord
 whose nature is always to have mercy.
 Grant us therefore, gracious Lord,
 so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ
 and to drink his blood,
 that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body
 and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him and he in us. Amen.

Please wait to be directed forward to receive communion.

HYMNS

1 The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want,
 he makes me lie in pastures green.
 He leads me by the still, still waters,
 his goodness restores my soul.

Chorus *And I will trust in you alone,
 and I will trust in you alone,
 for your endless mercy follows me,
 your goodness will lead me home.*

2 He guides my ways in righteousness,
 and he anoints my head with oil,
 and my cup, it overflows with joy,
 I feast on his pure delights.

3 And though I walk the darkest path,
 I will not fear the evil one,
 for you are with me, and your rod and staff
 are the comfort I need to know.

Stuart Townend (b 1963)

1 Brother, sister, let me serve you,
 let me be as Christ to you;
 pray that I may have the grace
 to let you be my servant too.

- 2 We are pilgrims on a journey,
and companions on the road;
we are here to help each other
walk the mile and bear the load.
- 3 I will hold the Christ-light for you in the night-time of your fear:
I will hold my hand out to you,
speak the peace you long to hear.
- 4 I will weep when you are weeping;
when you laugh, I'll laugh with you;
I will share your joy and sorrow
till we've seen this journey through.
- 5 When we sing to God in heaven,
we shall find such harmony,
born of all we've known together
of Christ's love and agony.
- 6 Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace
to let you be my servant too.

Richard A. M. Gillard (b 1953)

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Minister Eternal God, our beginning and our end, preserve in your people the new life of baptism;
as Christ receives us on earth,
so may he guide us through the trials of this world,
and enfold us in the joy of heaven,
where you live and reign,
one God for ever and ever.

All Almighty God,
we thank you for feeding us
with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
Through him we offer you
our souls and bodies
to be a living sacrifice.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit
to live and work to your praise and glory. Amen.

NOTICES

HYMN

- 1 For all the saints who from their labours rest,
who thee by faith before the world confessed,
thy name, O Jesus, be for ever blessed. Alleluia.
- 2 Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;
thou, in the darkness, still their one true light. Alleluia.
- 3 O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
and win, with them, the victor's crown of gold. Alleluia.
- 4 O blest communion, fellowship divine!
we feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
yet all are one in thee, for all are thine. Alleluia.
- 5 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
and hearts are brave again, and arms are strong. Alleluia.
- 6 The golden evening brightens in the west;
soon, soon to faithful warriors comes their rest:
sweet is the calm of paradise the blest. Alleluia.
- 7 But lo, there breaks a yet more glorious day;
the saints triumphant rise in bright array:
the King of glory passes on his way. Alleluia.
- 8 From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
singing to Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia.

William Walsham How (1823–1867)
